4. Competitive section: LineaDoc “Modern Heroes”

Documentaries produced in the years 2017 to 2018 are admitted in competition.

The contest is open to everyone, with no restriction on age and geographical origin, who wants to tell their own vision of the hero in the contemporary age, through documentary. What is an hero today? The concept of the hero has changed over time and is destined to change again. In mythology the hero embodies the best qualities of a population, in the modern age he is the man who perform an act of courage and sacrifices himself for the common good.

And today?

The number of works accepted for the competition section will be defined by the artistic direction and may vary depending on the needs of planning and project coherence.
